25X1 5. [] Spoke with Mr. Rod Keiser, Administrative Assistant to Representative Patsy Mink (D., Hawaii), concerning the request of [] Director, International Student Office, University of Hawaii, for material researched and documented for the Agency which he could use for a reference book on the peculiarities of names and their usage, on a worldwide basis. Mr. Keiser appreciates that the request raises a number of questions and said that their office would not be placed in an awkward position with [] should there be a delay in our response to the request.

25X1 6. [] Met with Miss Louise Ellis, Personal Secretary to Mr. Philip Kelleher, Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and provided a marked up copy of H.R. 16306 illustrating the deletions from H.R. 16306 and the rewording or additions to H.R. 16306 which are now set forth in H.R. 13705. Mr. Kelleher had requested this item for inclusion in his file on H.R. 13705. Mr. Kelleher was still away from the office today due to illness.

25X1 7. [] Met with Mr. Bun Bray, Associate Staff Director, House Post Office and Civil Service Manpower Subcommittee. Mr. Bray advised that he had met with Mr. Charles Whitley, the Chairman's Administrative Assistant during the morning. Mr. Henderson's schedule next week is now filled for Monday and Tuesday but the mornings during the remainder of the week look promising. I am to check with Mr. Bray again Tuesday afternoon to see if a time has been established for a visit for Chairman Henderson to the Headquarters.

25X1 8. [] Met with Senator Thomas Kuchel (R., Calif.) and briefed him on the current status of a case involving correspondence with China. The Senator appreciated the Agency's advice and indicated that he would state he had checked the matter and is confident of the attention it is receiving should a question arise during the coming week in California. Senator Kuchel noted in passing, that the Agency and its representatives had provided invaluable assistance during his two weeks in the Far East, and that he is beginning to plan on going back again.
